Congratulations to our 2025 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

The Baldwin County Home Builders Association awarded $7,000 in annual scholarships to local students. Since 1997, the BCHBA has awarded scholarships to deserving students pursuing careers in the home building industry. Qualifying students must be enrolled in construction-related studies in a technical school or college. To date, the Association has awarded $143,600 in scholarships to help students in Baldwin County prepare for careers in the home building industry. The Association is reaching out to students to encourage them to pursue a career in the building industry. We strive to assist them in their pursuit, whether it be as a builder, architect, engineer, plumber, carpenter, electrician, welder, landscaper, etc. There is a dire need for skilled individuals. The BCHBA's 2025 Scholarship Committee included William Hays - BCHBA Past President, Chris Farlow - State Director, National Delegate and BCHBA Charitable Foundation President, Debbie Crain - Associate Council Chairman, Michael Neese - Young Professionals Chairman and Marsha Jordan - Executive Vice President.

Ben Alberstadt

Ben is attending Auburn University and is majoring in Building Science and Construction Management. "A career in residential construction interests me because of the challenges and opportunities. My focus is on current construction trends and utilizing a collaborative approach during the design process. The field of residential construction will also allow me to promote the importance of growing trades, which is vital to the industry." The son of Joe and Jennifer Alberstadt of Daphne, Ben is a member of the NAHB Auburn Student Chapter and the Zuni Tribal Missions. He is an accomplished trap shooter and has worked for Four Lane Construction.

Graham Armstrong

Graham plans to study Civil Engineering at Auburn University. "I would like to specialize in soil testing, site preparation and foundation design, which are all important in building a structurally sound house. The housing industry is evolving and I plan to use my knowledge in engineering to help create homes that are strong, sustainable and affordable." The son of Brian and Erin Armstrong of Silverhill, Graham is graduating from St. Michael Catholic High School and has participated in Cross Country and Track & Field. He enjoys athletics and music. Graham has worked at Brian T. Armstrong Construction during the summers and on weekends.

Molly Arnold

Molly attends Auburn University, majoring in Building Science with a minor in Business. "I am interested in the home building industry because it is more personable and meaningful, making individual families' dreams come true. Choosing a career in home building is a decision that aligns with my passion for providing services that significantly impact people's lives." The daughter of Neal and Jennifer Arnold of Daphne, Alabama. Molly has been on the Auburn Deans List and is an AP Scholar. She enjoys weightlifting and bible studies. She has served as a superintendent intern with Radcliff Contractors.

Jack Gregorius

Jack is majoring in Building Science at Auburn University. "I have been working with a custom home builder for over three years and my favorite part of the job is getting to witness all the aspects of the building process coming together to create a final product that makes the dreams of the homeowner come true. Memories, friends, learning and family are the reasons I want to build homes" The son of Tim and Haley Gregorius of Fairhope, Jack was inducted into the National Honor Society, is a member of Future Business Leaders of America and enjoys outdoor activities like hunting and fishing. Jack has worked for Frostholt Construction and Brown Hays.
